Headline:
Sunny spells with showers developing.

Today:
A dry and bright start with some good spells of sunshine around but cloud bubbling up through the morning with showers developing. The showers, with light winds, will be slow moving and become occasionally heavy for a time this afternoon. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers largely die out this evening to leave some late sunny then long clear spells overnight. With light winds it will turn quite chilly with mist and fog patches developing. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tuesday:
Any fog soon clearing to leave a fine start with good sunny spells. However showers are expected to develop through the morning with the odd heavy one in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rather cloudy start Wednesday with showers but brighter later. Cloudy Thursday with outbreaks of rain, occasionally heavy later and strengthening winds. Further rain or showers on Friday.
